

FISCAL NOTE

SB 493 - HB 548

February 12, 1997

SUMMARY OF BILL: Abolishes the office of constable in Rhea County.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease State Revenues - Not Significant

Decrease Local Govt. Revenues - Not Significant

Decrease Local Govt. Expenditures - Not Significant

Assumes decrease in state and local revenues from fewer fines being levied and collected. Also assumes a decrease in local government expenditures from fewer persons being incarcerated. Amounts of decreases are expected to be not significant, since it can be assumed that most activities formerly performed by the constable will be accomplished by local law enforcement agencies.
